

JC THOMPSON BAND

The JC Thompson Band was formed in 1983, and has performed at various local venues over the years, such as Kleinhans Music Hall, Melody Fair and the Hamburg Fair Grounds. They have opened for several national acts, including Charlie Daniels, Diamond Rio, Willie Nelson, Marty Stuart and Dwight Yoakum.

In 1995 JC Thompson was inducted into the Buffalo Music Hall of Fame. The current members of the band include Phil Serwinowski, Rich Kegley, Mike Yeager and Bobby Falk (inducted into the Buffalo Music Hall of Fame in 2012).

The versatility of the band is it's greatest asset, appealing to all age groups. It's main sound has always been a cross between country, country rock and classic rock & roll covering such artists as Marshall Tucker, Crosby Stills and Nash, the Allman Bros. Band, the Eagles, Tom Petty and Neil Young. In addition, performing songs by country greats like Tim McGraw, Clint Black, Waylon Jennings and Willie Nelson. The band also has it's own writing, arranging and performing some original material.

JC Performs as a duo and solo act expanding the musical boundaries to include folk, rock and country, featuring songs by the likes of the Beatles, Paul Simon, John Mellencamp, James Taylor, Roger Miller and Cat Stevens to mention a few.

Listening to the JC Thompson Band is truly experiencing creativity, they passionately perform the music we've all grown to love and enjoy.
